IN THIS ISSUE:
- Library Adds Group Research Workstation for Collaborative Searching
- The Copy Center Closes – What Does It Mean for Faculty?
- JSTOR Adds 14 More Journals

STATEMENT REGARDING PRE-1980 BOUND JOURNALS

The quote attributed to ASU Retired Professor Michael Dougan, “The library at ASU has dumped all the journals that were published before 1980,” in the July, 2006 issue of Jonesboro Occasions magazine is either an excusable misquote on the part of Jonesboro Occasions magazine or an inexcusable and intentionally inaccurate statement by Professor Dougan.

Not even one volume of the pre-1980 bound journals, nor any other journals, have been “dumped” or otherwise discarded from the library at ASU. Those removed from the shelves to accommodate the construction of compressed video classrooms in the library are in temporary storage on the 6th level of the library tower in anticipation of the installation of earthquake-compliant shelving to house them. The University community has been informed of this arrangement via several campus media.

His error in this matter is forgiven.

I hope that Jonesboro Occasions magazine will validate similar allegations in the future.

George C. Grant, Ph.D.
Dean of Library and Information Resources
ASU

LIBRARY ADDS GROUP RESEARCH WORKSTATION FOR COLLABORATIVE SEARCHING

- The Library has recently acquired the first of several new workstation tables designed especially to support online searching and computer work on group projects. The table, which is located near the Information Desk on the main floor, features a curved outer edge that easily allows three people to work together at a single pc. The workstation is equipped with a 24-inch flat panel monitor and contains the full Microsoft Office suite of programs, including PowerPoint.

During the fall semester, we plan to acquire and equip three additional group research workstations to more easily accommodate students working on group assignments. We encourage you to stop by and see this new workstation when you are in the Library and to mention its availability to your students if you are making assignments that involve relevant group work.

THE COPY CENTER CLOSES – WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR FACULTY?

- After four years of operation, the Copy Center in the Dean B. Ellis Library closed on June 30. As a result, the Library is assuming the responsibility for providing photocopiers for self-service use inside the Library. Photocopiers will be located on the second floor and walk-up self-service copies will still be priced at 10¢ per copy.

  Departmental charges will be available between the hours of 8:00 am – 5:00 pm Monday – Friday. Faculty wishing to charge self-service copies to their department must provide the proper account number for billing each time they wish to charge copies. Additionally, we will need to have a letter on file from the chair or department secretary authorizing you to charge against that account. Please contact Dana Beck in Periodicals with any questions (phone 3666).

  Laminating and banner printing will continue to be available in Media Services on the first floor of the Library.
For other services that were provided by the Copy Center like batch copying, color copies, course packs, fax sending and receiving, and spiral binding, please contact other local businesses, such as:

ASU Bookstore, phone 972-2058
FedEx/Kinko’s, 2005 East Nettleton Avenue, phone 935-8690
McGregor’s Copies Plus, 2020 East Johnson Avenue, phone 935-6074
Pasmore Printing, 2900 East Matthews, phone 932-6529
Sir Speedy, 2602 East Nettleton Avenue, phone 933-6565
UPS Store, 361 Southwest Drive, phone 910-0481

JSTOR ADDS 14 MORE JOURNALS

- The JSTOR archive of full-images of scholarly journals has recently added 14 more journals to their content.

The recently added journals are:

- African Arts
- Arab Law Quarterly
- Bulletin of Latin American Research
- The Canadian Journal of Sociology/Cahiers canadiens de sociologie
- Frontiers: A Journal of Women Studies
- Indonesia
- Journal of Public Health Policy
- Islamic Law and Society
- Journal of Research in Music Education
- The Millbank Quarterly (and previous titles The Milbank Memorial Fund Quarterly. Health and Society; The Milbank Memorial Fund Quarterly; and The Milbank Memorial Fund Quarterly Bulletin)
- Music Educator’s Journal
- Novon
- The Public Historian
- Public Performance & Management Review.

To browse a list of all JSTOR titles arranged by subject, click here. To browse the full list in A to Z order, follow the link above and click on the “Alphabetical List of Journals” link near the top of the page.

---

To submit feedback or ask questions about topics covered in this newsletter, email Jeff Bailey, Assistant Director for Public Services at jbailey@astate.edu.

All back issues of this newsletter can be viewed online at http://www.library.astate.edu/newsletter.

7/17/2006